

If you would like to submit an article for consideration to be published in the “MACVPR News”, please submit in the following format:

- Type in Microsoft Word
- Use Gill Sans MT font , number 9 (this is the font used in the actual newsletter). If that font is not available to you please use “Times New Roman”.
- Don’t indent paragraphs, just space in between paragraphs
- Include your name and credentials exactly as you want them to appear in the newsletter
Students -- please include your school name and degree you are a candidate for Clinicians -- please include the name of the facility you currently work for
- For “Clinical Article” please keep word count to approximately 1900-2000 words including references. We can try to include pictures if that is helpful to present your information and we may be able to have attachments on our website for any additional info that doesn’t fit into the NL.
